

Delia Ray

Paducah soul singer with a six-piece band and a voice that fills the room.

““Delia Ray doesn't sing a room, she owns it.” — Flatboat Arts Review”

Bio

Delia Ray grew up singing in church in Paducah and never stopped. Her band blends classic Stax soul, modern R&B, and a little Southern funk. She headlines theaters and festivals across the region and still loves a sweaty club show. Her album "River Rise" was named one of the year's best regional releases by several Kentucky outlets.
